EMPORIO ARMANI

A quiet palette of deep blues and blacks lets textures – think velvet, wool and faux fur – do the talking.
Faux fur and leather coat, poplin shirt, velvet top and wool trousers, from Emporio Armani.

DUNHILL (OPPOSITE PAGE)

Colours like camel and black; boot-cut trousers and down jackets – these sound like retro elements, but the way they are mixed by creative director Mark Weston is pretty darn fresh. Down jacket, down vest and leather trousers, from Dunhill.

A STUDY OF OPPOSITES

2010 WINTER

Be true, just not too true. For this season, the fashion world is embracing a new kind of classicism. It's not about being too perfect, it's about being just right. The best looks for fall/winter 2010 combine elevated everyday pieces with new takes on tailoring, and the odd dramatic flourish. What's new? Camel, black, wool, faux fur, velvet, down jackets and leather trousers, from Dunhill.
