How many times in this year and a half have we wanted to escape from reality?
And by escape I mean literally.
A rush, an outlet, an infinite desert of which we don't see the end, in which getting lost and not think.
A parallel world, almost, where there is no pandemic nightmare.
A dimension in which one could still live in a normal way the community. A place to relax, watch the sunset and find ourselves.
